

Women on the Water Code of Conduct

While we think that you will have an amazing and fun experience, it is important that we all start the class with the same expectations. In order to ensure that everyone has a safe experience and that the class does not disrupt the Clubhouse atmosphere, we have set forth the following rules. By checking the Code of Conduct checkbox on the site, you agree to all terms and conditions set forth below.

- The boat that you are using will be your responsibility. You will be held financially responsible for replacement parts and repairs necessary as a result of neglect.
- Life jackets MUST be worn while on the dock and in a boat.
- Treat people fairly with dignity and respect, without regards to race, sex/gender, religion, disability, or national origin. Disrespectful behavior toward other classmates will not be tolerated.
- Dangerous behavior will not be tolerated.
- Verbal and physical arguments are prohibited.
- Closed toed shoes must be worn at all times.
- Should any of the above codes be broken, the participant may be asked to leave the program.
